

Heritage Month

Scavenger Hunt Cambridge

To be eligible for the prize draw, you must be a resident in the Waipā District. You need not be a library member. You must get at least 10 questions correct. Entries due 28 February.
Read through all the questions before heading out as the hunt questions are not necessarily in order.

Name:

Phone/email:

1 Two chain link measures are embedded in the footpath somewhere between Robert Harris and the roundabout on Duke Street. Name a business one of them is closest to? Hint: Walk along Victoria Street looking for this →

.....

2 Which horses have Walk of Fame plaques outside the BNZ?

.....

3 What exhibit do you first come across as you enter Cambridge Museum on the left?
Hint: The exhibit is in the glass case on your left as you enter, walking clockwise.

.....

4 Name or describe the historic feature that exists at the Victoria Station Lolly Shop.
Hint: Visit Victoria Station 55 Victoria Street.

.....

5 Name one business located in the WH Cubis Building on Victoria Street.
Hint: The building is located somewhere between the Alpha St and Duke St roundabouts.

.....

6 'The Mare and the Foal' sculpture is outside the Town Hall. What initials are carved into the mare's front left leg?

7 What business occupies the building formerly known as the 'Pink Church'? Hint: It still has pink doors.

.....

8 How many petals are on the flower (stained glass window) above the entry to St Andrew's Church?
Hint: You are looking for the flower above the blue door Hamilton Road entrance.

.....

9 How many fronds are on each side of the sculpture commemorating liberation of Le Quesnoy (Cambridge's Sister City)? Hint: Visit the memorial close to Lake Te Ko Utu/Thornton Road.

10 What is the name of the swamp located on the Cambridge and District Centennial Memorial Map?
Hint: Visit the memorial close to Lake Te Ko Utu near Thornton Road/Victoria Street.

.....

11 What is the first name on the Cambridge War Memorial Remembrance Plaque in Jubilee Gardens?

.....

12 Name one of the businesses in the Power Board Buildings.
Hint: Visit the Empire Street/Alpha Street corner.

.....

13 Approximately how high is the stone marking the Cambridge Redoubt in Fort Street?
Hint: No need to take a tape measure. Measure it against your body and measure that mark later!

.....

14 What is the first item on the local history page of the Waipā District Libraries website?

.....

Well done and good luck. There is only one prize of a Kobo eReader package valued at over $350. One prize will be drawn from all entries that receive a score of 10 and above from both libraries. One entry per person for each location. Return to your library or scan and email waipalibraries@waipadc.govt.nz

Office Use Only: Score: